X-Y CLUB LOSE TO CRESCENTS

The Crescents proved to be tee much for the X. Y. club of Hartford, Saturday night, at the Olympic hall, when the locals turned the tables on the visitors, defeating them, 32 to 20, before a fair sized crowd of basketball fans. Some classy playing, in guarding and shooting was displayed by both the home team and the visitors.

The Crescents atarted right off in the first half to get the jump when J. Murphy pulled off three good shots in succession, gelting the lead and maintaining it throughout the rest of the half amid game. Cronin of the visiting team was the only one of make a field goal in the first half. This goal and two fouls were the only one of make a field goal in the first half. Echoes From the Floor.

Just before the game Manager Benoit made the following request: Ladies and Gentlemen: Will you please stop smoking during the game. As we did not notice any of the ladies smoking before the game this request to the fair sex was a trifle superfluous. Maybe Jake knows them better than we do.

Poor "Hap" Harmon sure showed the infirmities of age during the second half of the game. The old war horse hardly had a breath of life left in him when the final whistle blew. Gosh, ain't it awful when your hair hegins to fail out.

PRESIDENT IS COLLECTING PEACE CONFERENCE PAPERS

Washington, Jan. 30—(By The A. P.)
—President Wilson is having collected and arranged for ready-reference all papers and documents in his possession relating to the Paris peace session relating to the Paris peace conference with a view to the preparation of a book on the negotiations.

The president, in making these preparation, it was learned today, has accepted the volunteered services of Ray Stannard Baker, who was attached to the American present the standard to the standard t ed to the American peace commission. Mr. Baker during the past two weeks has spent several hours each day the white house putting into shape all available data on the peace conference in the president's possession.

While it is not believed that the president contemplates beginning the actual work of writing or dictating the proposed book during the few rethe proposed book during the few remaining weeks of his term of office, it is understood that he has in mind the inauguration of real work upon it shortly after his retirement to private life. the only source of income for Mrs Pearse. One of the flats had been oc-cupied by a Mrs. Mulcahy but she and all the other occupants except Mrs. Pearse had left the building in De-cember owing to repeated raids. The military wrecked the house with pickaxes and crewbars. It is said they were seeking Richard Mulcahy, a member of the Dail Eireann and the reputed chief of staff of the republican army. The interior of the building was entirely demolished.

According to Mrs. Pearse the "black

Local opinion seemed to be that the wrecking of the house was done in reprisal for the ambuscade at Terenure. COMMENT OF BRITISH PRESS
